

SCHOLARSHIP OF HONOR™

*To Honor, To Remember
Those Who Serve.*

BRIAN LAVIOLETTE FOUNDATION

“I PROMISE, IN YOUR NAME AND MEMORY WE ALL WILL ACCOMPLISH GREAT THINGS.”

Darrel Burnett 8-17-92

On January 23, 2011 my big brother, Brian, would have turned 34. Yet I still remember him as a 15-year-old, the age in which his life was claimed in a swimming accident. His boyish good looks and his wide-eyed plans for making a difference in the world will never change in my mind or in the minds of those who knew him.

BRIAN LAVIOLETTE

Since 1992, the year of Brian's death, we've been working to ensure his plans for making a difference are carried on. Thanks to the support from our family, friends, the community and many others throughout the nation, we've been able to embrace his dream of inspiring others.

The Brian LaViolette Scholarship Foundation has awarded over 450 scholarships in its first 18+ years of existence. The Scholarship of Honor program was established in the fall of 2003 to pay tribute to those who received our nation's highest award for valor, the Medal of Honor.

When we began to hear about the sons, daughters, brothers and sisters from our community who died in the War on Terror, we wanted to honor and remember them by offering scholarships in their names as well. With the financial support of so many, the Scholarship of Honor also pays tribute to the fallen service members' family—a grieving family looking for purpose, friends looking to remember and a grateful nation looking to honor.

The Scholarship of Honor is an award to recognize those with plans to enlist in the military or pursue a career in public safety or community service. These noble fields include law enforcement, police science, fire safety, EMT services, nursing, teaching and ministry. The program has allowed our message to touch the lives of many around the world. Scholarships are now awarded in a nationwide effort from Gettysburg to Honolulu, as well as two foreign countries.

Growing up, my big brother looked after me. Now, by watching over what Brian essentially started, I am able to return his love with my role as Executive Director of his Foundation. I've discovered Brian is much like the young military men and women we are honoring—all of them were ambitious and dedicated to helping others. Through the Scholarship of Honor, their spirits can live on through those who follow in their footsteps.

THE JOURNEY CONTINUES

OVER 5,800 OF OUR NATION'S FINEST MEN AND WOMEN HAVE PAID THE ULTIMATE sacrifice in the War on Terror. One of our goals is to honor and to remember these Soldiers, Sailors, Airmen, Guardsmen and Marines by recognizing our servicemen and women of the future. Thanks to the generous financial support from around the nation, these endowed scholarships will live forever in memory of these heroic individuals who made the ultimate sacrifice in the name of freedom.

SCHOLARSHIP OF HONOR MISSION

To honor, to remember, those who serve, while recognizing dedication, community service and selflessness in those who follow in their footsteps.

RECOGNIZING COURAGE AND COMMITMENT

General Robert Foley

A LETTER ARRIVED FROM WEST POINT THE week of Brian's funeral inviting him to apply to the academy. He never had a chance to open the letter that was sent by the office of Medal of Honor Recipient, Lieutenant General Robert Foley, who was Commandant of West Point at the time. Now more than a decade and a half later, an award has been established at the Academy in General Foley's name. Through the Scholarship of Honor, many others have the chance to make a difference and follow the West Point creed of Duty, Honor, Country.

Karen Smith presents Eric Voight with the Scholarship of Honor medal at Menasha High School on May 30, 2006 as Guy Smith delivers the proclamation. Also honored were Karen's father, Elmer Martell (background right) and one of his best friends, Edgar Spielbauer (left). Both are World War II veterans and 1941 graduates of Menasha High School. Elmer served as a member of the 82nd Airborne and was one of only two crew members to survive the D-Day invasion. Edgar fought in the historic Battle of the Bulge.

Through the generosity of Guy and Karen Smith, the Scholarship of Honor at Menasha High School will carry on for generations to come.

HONORING PAST HEROES BY RECOGNIZING THOSE OF THE FUTURE

From generation to generation patriotism has transcended politics. Tens of millions of brave young men and women have served our country with honor. Hundreds of thousands have paid the ultimate sacrifice. And who are they? They come from different generations. They come from different backgrounds but, ultimately, they come together as our country's greatest heroes.

THE CREATION OF THE SCHOLARSHIP OF HONOR

As proud Americans we find ways to honor those who have given so much for our country. We salute their efforts, we fly the stars and stripes, and we look for ways to instill in others the pride and determination that we find in those who have given so much of themselves for others.

The Scholarship of Honor recognizes a graduating high school senior with plans to enlist in the military or pursue a career in public safety or community service. The award is in honor of the service and selfless sacrifice of our past and present military heroes.

The program was unveiled in the Spring of 2004 at Menasha High School in Menasha, Wisconsin. It is one of the few high schools in the United States proud to recognize two Medal of Honor Recipients who both began their educational and inspirational journeys there. These Medal of Honor Recipients, Ken Stumpf and Elmer Burr, inspired the Foundation to create a special Scholarship of Honor medal, which is presented along with each scholarship award.

BEYOND THE CALL OF DUTY

THE MEDAL OF HONOR

In 1863, the same year as the Battle of Gettysburg was being fought, President Abraham Lincoln authorized the first Medal of Honor to be presented. This award distinguishes personal bravery and self-sacrifice for honor and love of country. Of the more than 50 million Americans who have served our country in uniform, fewer than 3,500 have been awarded the Medal of Honor, our nation's highest award for Valor. Today, there are fewer than 100 of these great men living.

The flag raising over Iwo Jima has inspired our nation for generations. John Bradley received the Navy Cross for his valor and bravery while saving lives on Iwo Jima. His modesty kept the honor a secret from his entire family until after his death in 1994. Now John Bradley's courage and his bravery as a Navy Corpsman will live on through the Scholarship of Honor at his alma mater, Wisconsin's Appleton West High School.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS ABOUT THE SCHOLARSHIP OF HONOR

HOW IS PERMISSION GRANTED TO ESTABLISH A SCHOLARSHIP?

The Medal of Honor Recipient or the immediate family of the fallen service member allows the foundation to establish a scholarship. The sponsors and the school are approached only after permission has been given.

WHAT IS THE SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION PROCESS?

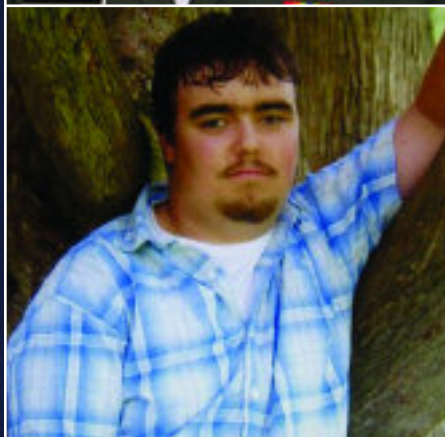

Applications are accepted at the high school where the scholarship is established or nominated by the faculty of a military academy. Interested students must complete a three-page application and 500-word essay. Applications are due on or before April 15th of each year. Typically, the award is presented during the graduation season, between May 15th and June 5th.

HOW ARE SCHOLARSHIP OF HONOR RECIPIENTS CHOSEN?

In most cases, the family, the endowment sponsor and/or the school faculty are part of the selection process. After reviewing the applications and sometimes interviewing the applicant, a final decision is made by the committee.

THE DREAM LIVES ON

Army Spc. 4 Nichole Frye was Northeastern Wisconsin's first casualty of the War on Terror. The scholarship at Lena High School honors this brave, young woman who was killed while delivering books and supplies to school children in Baqubah, Iraq. Nichole dreamed of a career in criminal justice and fire safety when she returned from Iraq. Her sacrifice and dreams of making the world a safer place inspired us to include community service in our Scholarship of Honor mission.

Carrying on a family tradition... Bill Frye (below) received the 5th annual Nichole Frye Scholarship of Honor in May 2008.

"I would like to say it was the biggest honor being chosen for my sister's scholarship. I intend to keep her dream alive till the day I die. I can't thank you enough."

Sincerely, Bill Frye

HONORING MANY ACROSS THIS GREAT LAND

United States Marine Corps Captain Tony Mitchell presents a framed Scholarship of Honor Medal and Gold Star Flag to the family of Brent Vroman. The scholarship in honor of Brent has been established at his alma mater, Omro High School in Oshkosh, WI.

WHAT ARE THE SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS AWARDED?

The recipients receive a one-time gift of $500 to $2,000 at the time of graduation. The dollar amount can vary depending on the amount of the endowment and the sponsor's wishes. In addition, recipients are also presented the Scholarship of Honor Medal.

IF AN INDIVIDUAL ENLISTS IN THE MILITARY, WHY DO THEY NEED A MONETARY AWARD?

The Scholarship of Honor is more than a financial award. It is presented to reward the recipient's commitment to his or her community and country, as well as a way of saying thank you for their choice to serve and sacrifice. The money may be used to cover their expenses before or during their military appointment.

SCHOLARSHIP OF HONOR MEDAL

Inspired by the Medal of Honor, The Brian LaViolette Scholarship Foundation created a special medal featuring symbolic elements of service, education and inspiration. The Scholarship of Honor Medal is presented to the recipient which hangs from a purple ribbon, signifying sacrifice.

Symbolism OF SCHOLARSHIP OF HONOR MEDAL

- PURPLE RIBBON is symbolic of the Purple Heart Medal and indicates sacrifice
- FIVE STARS represent the five branches of our Armed Forces
- EAGLE represents the U.S.A. and the freedom we enjoy
- SHIELD represents strength and protection
- ARROWS symbolize strength
- OLIVE BRANCH symbolizes peace
- OPEN BOOK symbolizes continuing knowledge
- THE POLISHED HIGHLIGHTS symbolize the shining example set by these servicemen and women and our promise to never tarnish their memory
- REVERSE SIDE is engraved with details about those who have served and are being honored with this award. Those details are surrounded by a wreath symbolizing honor and achievement

WHAT IS THE SCHOLARSHIP OF HONOR AWARD CEREMONY? WHO IS INVOLVED?

The majority of presentations involve the family of the fallen serviceman or woman, which often includes the mother, father, brothers, sisters, spouses, children and other relatives. The award's endowment sponsor also has the privilege to be involved in the presentation. If the sponsor is not in attendance, they will be mentioned and thanked for their contribution.

During the first year of the Scholarship of Honor ceremony, a military honor guard is invited to present a framed Scholarship of Honor Medal to the family and endowment sponsor. In most cases, the honor guard will also assist in the presentation of a Gold Star Flag. When possible, a Medal of Honor Recipient presents the first Scholarship of Honor Medal.

FRAMED SCHOLARSHIP OF HONOR MEDAL

The family receives a framed Scholarship of Honor Medal in memory of their loved one who has made the ultimate sacrifice. The endowment sponsor receives a framed medal with photos of the service member being honored.

FRAMED GOLD STAR FLAG

When the first Scholarship of Honor is awarded, a framed Gold Star Flag is presented to the parents, spouse or children of the fallen honoree. The Gold Star Flag, a tradition which began in 1918, during WWI, represents the ultimate sacrifice their families have made on behalf of our freedom.

The inscription to little Jimmy on the back of the medal, in honor of his father, reads: Your selfless service, heroic deeds and love for your Marines will never be forgotten. From this day forward, the manner by which you lived your life, with enthusiasm, with vigor, and with an energy rarely witnessed, will forever stand as an inspiration to those who take on the noble challenge of serving their fellow man.

HOW ARE THE SCHOLARSHIPS FUNDED?

It is the Brian LaViolette Foundation's goal to maintain a minimum of $15,000 in long-term endowment capital held in a trust for each Scholarship of Honor established. This amount will support an annual scholarship award of $750.

Major individual sponsors or community-wide fundraising efforts support the Scholarship of Honor. Payment to an endowment can be made over a two-year period. When fully endowed, the award will be presented annually.

In communities where scholarships are established, local banks are often the central receiving point for community donations. They can act as organizers of the endowment efforts before transferring the funds to the Nicolet National Bank trust department in Green Bay and Marinette, Wisconsin.

The Weyers Family Foundation of Green Bay, Wisconsin generously provided a special grant to assist in establishing the first 20 Scholarship of Honor awards. The Weyers Family Foundation also contributes $4000 annually to cover costs related to the awarding of those 20 scholarships. Their generosity ensures that 100% of scholarship funds are awarded to deserving students on an annual basis. The Brian LaViolette Scholarship Foundation receives no administrative fees for maintaining this program.

WHO MANAGES ALL THE DETAILS OF THE SCHOLARSHIP OF HONOR?

Kim LaViolette, Brian's sister, is Executive Director of the Brian LaViolette Scholarship Foundation. Kim, as the former Community Director of the March of Dimes in Asheville, North Carolina, brings skilled experience, passion and love for her brother to the important mission of the Foundation. The Brian LaViolette Scholarship Foundation operates from two rent-free locations in Green Bay, Wisconsin and Asheville, North Carolina.

INTERNATIONAL SCHOLARSHIP OF HONOR

A Journey without Borders, whether geographical, cultural or political, often defines the world in which we live. Rarely, as a city, country or international community are we able to break down the walls that separate us, and join together our common bonds, dreams and futures.

One of the goals of the Brian LaViolette Scholarship Foundation is to support the dreams of our young students, like Brian, and support their pursuit of higher education wherever they may live. With that in mind, in 2003, the Brian LaViolette Scholarship Foundation awarded a scholarship to a student in Poland, thereby initiating what is now the International Scholarship of Honor. We were honored and proud to extend our International Scholarship of Honor program to South Africa in July of 2007.

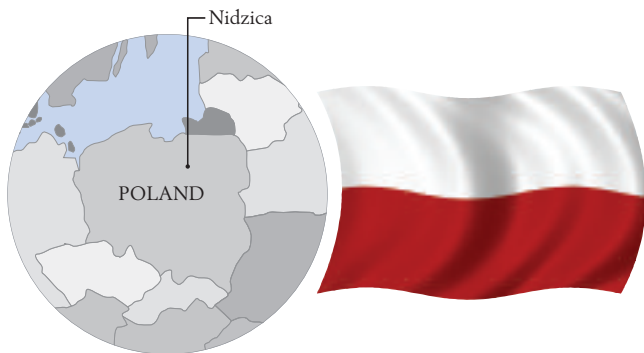

The international honor comes with a financial award to help with the student's education, along with an International Scholarship of Honor medal.

A pure, white ribbon, the international symbol of peace, holds the medal close to the heart, signifying our common bond.

The International Scholarship of Honor is simply an extension of our commitment to recognize deserving youth—in the United States and around the world—for their commitment to community, education and world peace.

INTERNATIONAL SCHOLARSHIP OF HONOR—POLAND

INTERNATIONAL SCHOLARSHIP OF HONOR—SOUTH AFRICA

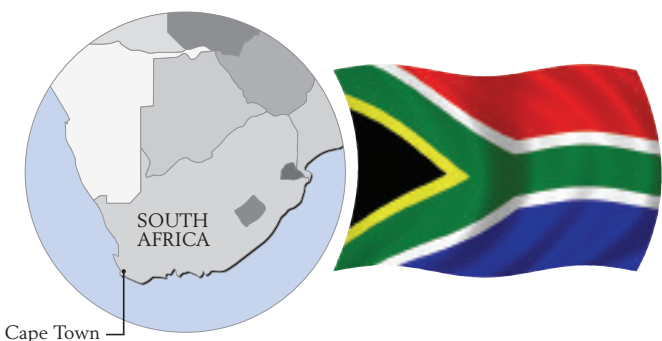

With the generous support, assistance and dedication of local Wisconsin teachers, Gloria and Paul Zimmerman, the Brian LaViolette Scholarship Foundation awarded its first South Africa Scholarship of Honor in July 2007.

Based on information provided by the People to People Organization, located in the Republic of South Africa, the LEAP Science and Maths School in Cape Town was selected to coordinate the selection process for scholarships at its school.

Nelson Mandela was a great inspiration to Brian and the Zimmerman's. The back of the medal is engraved:

"Education is the great engine of personal development. It is what we make out of what we have, not what we are given, that separates one person from another."

— Nelson Mandela

Sponsor: Paul and Gloria Zimmerman

First recipient, Thandisile Mfengu, commented "The scholarship has played a wonderful role to my studies. Half of my fees are covered by this scholarship and I'm very grateful about that. I was not able to pay that amount by myself. One more thing, the scholarship helped me to build real relationships with people in the world. I would like to thank everyone who made this scholarship/relationship to be possible."

100% of the gifts from our sponsors are presented to the international scholarship recipients annually.

“The thing you fear most is that people will forget, and even you might forget, some of the things that make him who he is. With this scholarship, you get reassurances that he’ll still be there... and at least once a year someone else will be talking about Isaiah.”

Pam Bodart, Isaiah Hunt’s mom—December 23, 2004
Isaiah Hunt Scholarship of Honor
Bayport High School, Green Bay, Wisconsin

“It’s not easy to describe how proud I am to have my name associated with this scholarship. What your family has been doing in Brian’s memory is a tremendous inspiration to young people and it is a program of tremendous pride to the community and country.”

Tom Hudner, Medal of Honor Recipient
Tom Hudner Scholarship of Honor
EAA AirVenture, Oshkosh, Wisconsin

“If one’s life is to have meaning I can think of no higher calling than to serve those in need. Work is in itself an honor and a privilege. To reach beyond that, to feel deeply about your career and to be able to cultivate a reverence and a passion for your life’s work stands, in my mind, as the most one could ask for.”

Christopher Derr
Nursing
2009 Andrew Brownfield Scholarship of Honor

2007 Ryan Jerabek Scholarship of Honor
Pulaski High School, Pulaski, Wisconsin

“While I have never been a particularly emotional person, I was deeply affected when I was first told about the award and read about the Brian LaViolette Foundation and what it stands for. It is somewhat overwhelming to receive an award bearing the name of a living hero, such as LTG Foley....I also thank God for people such as your family who are strong enough to use your talents and experience to help others.”

BRIAN'S LEGACY

Brian LaViolette, the son of Doug and Renee and brother of Kim loved his family and friends, excelled in soccer and golf, and enjoyed playing trumpet in the DePere High School band. But with the fun, came hard work. He earned high honors in school and set his sights on college.

However, life's journey doesn't always happen as planned. Brian's life was claimed in a swimming accident on August 8, 1992 in Door County, Wisconsin. His spirit and hopes for the future live on—not only in the hearts and souls of high school seniors, but also through the encouragement of others to truly appreciate every moment of their life's journey.

In memory of their son and brother, the LaViolette family established the Brian LaViolette Scholarship Foundation on August 17, 1992. Thanks to the generosity of so many, to date, over 400 scholarships have been awarded; some in Brian's memory, some in honor of those close to Brian, and others in honor of our fallen heroes. Brian lived his life according to inspirational thoughts, including the phrase, "The Journey is the Reward." He kept those words next to his bed and close to his heart. They have become the inspiration for the Foundation. Through Brian's legacy, the Foundation continues to help young people to reach for their dreams.

THE MISSION OF THE BRIAN LAVIOLETTE FOUNDATION

To provide yearly scholarships to today's students while honoring hard work, community service, offer inspiration and share the belief that "The Journey is the Reward."

THE LAVIOLETTE FAMILY

"We are so thankful for all your support to allow us to continue not only Brian's Journey, but the Journey of students around the World."

Doug, Renee and Kim LaViolette

“I PROMISE, IN YOUR NAME
AND MEMORY WE ALL WILL ACCOMPLISH GREAT THINGS.”

Many experiences in life are fleeting never to be drawn on again while other moments remain ingrained in our consciousness and we carry them with us the rest of our lives. Brian LaViolette's tragic death is one of those moments for me. Every detail is indelibly etched in my memory as if it happened yesterday. All these years later, I can still vividly remember scratching out my thoughts on a legal pad while being surrounded with sorrow the depths of which I had never experienced. I was fulfilling a request from my dear friend Doug LaViolette to deliver Brian's eulogy.

Everything I wanted to say and, more importantly, the way I wanted to say it was all right there in my first draft. I can only believe that Brian had something to do with that. I wrote his eulogy as if I were personally responsible for completing the journey that he would never live to enjoy. And thus came the words, "I promise in your name and memory we, we all will, accomplish great things."

The past 17 years have proven that, through the support of family, friends, the community and even strangers throughout the nation, Brian's Foundation has indeed accomplished great things. I encourage you to become part of this wonderful journey as an endowment sponsor or donor. You will find, as I have, that your life will truly be enriched.

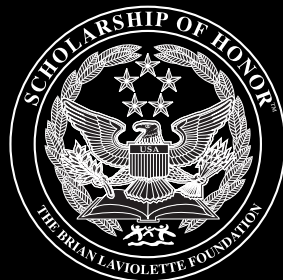

What a rewarding journey it has been,
Darrel Burnett
